the appeals of such, have the sole purpose of defending, unwinding, or otherwise enjoining or precluding any foreclosure or eviction, and do not have an adverse effect on any of the Debtors' assets.

7. Absent further order of this Court, the automatic stay shall remain in full force and effect with respect to any and all other pending or future claims, cross-claims, third-party claims, and counterclaims by Interested Parties related to judicial and non-judicial foreclosure and eviction proceedings, including with respect to (a) monetary relief of any kind or any nature against the Debtors, (b) claims of recoupment or setoff, (c) relief that if granted would affect the amount, validity, and/or priority of lien(s) held by the Debtors, (d) relief that if granted would not terminate or preclude the prosecution and completion of a foreclosure or eviction, and (e) actions asserted in the form of a class action or collective action.

8. Should there be any disagreements between or among any Interested Parties and/or the Debtors regarding whether any claims, cross-claims, third-party claims, or counterclaims fall within the Debtors' discretionary exception to the automatic stay approved by this Court, this Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and resolve such disputes.

Borrower Bankruptcy Proceedings

9. The Debtors shall have the discretion to waive the automatic stay imposed by section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code applicable against a borrower who has sought, or may seek during the pendency of these cases, bankruptcy protection under chapters 7, 11, 12, or 13 of the Bankruptcy Code (each, a "Bankrupt Borrower"), pursuant to the following terms and conditions:

  - b. for violation of any local, state, or federal statute or other law in connection with the origination of the Bankrupt Borrower’s loan;
  - c. for relief that if granted, would have an effect on the amount, validity, or priority of the Debtors’ claim or lien against a Bankrupt

Borrower or the property of the Bankrupt Borrower securing such claim or lien of the Debtors; or

- d. asserted in the form of a class action;
- iv. absent further order of this Court and if consented to by the Debtors, the automatic stay shall remain in full force and effect with respect to any party seeking to intervene to assert related claims against the Debtors or any class action or collective action brought by any Bankrupt Borrower on behalf of any other class of borrowers;
- v. the Debtors shall retain the right, upon appropriate motion and notice to any Bankrupt Borrower, Bankruptcy Trustee, or United States Trustee, to seek to impose any provision of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code modified by this Order, and to the extent such relief is sought, the Debtors will not object to such party's telephonic participation at any hearing on such motion;

The Debtors shall have discretion to waive the automatic stay imposed by section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code applicable to actions involving the amount, validity, and/or priority of liens with respect to properties subject to mortgages owned or serviced by Ditech (such actions, "Title Disputes") to allow Interested Parties to assert a defense, including the appeals of such, in Title Disputes.

11. Absent further order of this Court, the automatic stay shall remain in full force and effect with respect to any and all other pending or future claims, cross-claims, third-party claims, and counterclaims against the Debtors, including with respect to (a) monetary relief of any kind or any nature against the Debtors, (b) relief that if granted would affect the amount, validity, and/or priority of lien(s) held by the Debtors, (c) actions for partition, eminent domain, or seizure of the property securing lien(s) held by the Debtors, (d) relief that is not necessary for the resolution of the Title Dispute, or (e) actions asserted in the form of a class action or collective action.
